“The Vancouver International Children’s Festival presented Will and Seeka at our 2023 Festival with great success. All the shows were sold out and the audiences were wowed! Will & Seeka are both outstanding musicians who engaged kids through their uplifting and energetic songs encouraging folks to connect with the music with interactive components to the show. Our audiences left the theatre with big grins on their faces and some were even singing the songs on their way out. I highly recommend Will and Seeka to folks who are looking for outstanding music for young audiences.”
