VIVRE

Élémo presents “VIVRE,” a performance where poetry and rhythm paint a sensitive portrait of our time. Through grounded and authentic texts, he invites the audience to see themselves, question their certainties, and celebrate what makes each person unique. Guided by an honest presence and a deeply human voice, this artistic offering creates a moment of reflection, emotion, and genuine connection.

“Élémo’s visit is always a highlight for everyone. Students leave the creative workshop full of ideas and practical tools they can use in their own slam writing projects. As an excellent educator, Élémo gives them confidence and encourages them to step outside their comfort zone. This unique opportunity to meet a slam poet has truly become a must at our school.”

—Virginie Laliberté, Josée Grégoire,

In this workshop, she will lead a thoughtful discussion dispelling the stereotypes that have been placed upon Indigenous people for generations. She will summarize the key points of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and discuss the Calls to Actions and the 6 Actions of ReconciliACTION: To Learn, Understand, Explore, Recognize, Take Action, and Teach Others. Using the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation's ReconciliACTION plan template, students will work with Kung Jaadee to create their own actionable plan to combat prejudice and eliminate discrimination, while also promoting tolerance, understanding and good relations with indigenous peoples.
